Recommendation Letter for Dr. Luo Yan

To Whom It May Concern,

I am Professor Yu Kang, Professor and Doctoral Supervisor at the Advanced Technology Research Institute and School of Information Science and Technology, University of Science and Technology of China (USTC). I am pleased to provide this letter in strong support of Dr. Luo Yan for a postdoctoral research position.

I have had the opportunity to observe Dr. Luo's professional development and collaborative research performance in the context of joint academic activities and project discussions. Dr. Luo has consistently demonstrated excellent collaborative skills, clear scientific communication, and strong coordination capabilities—attributes that are essential for success in complex research environments.

Dr. Luo's research exhibits high intellectual quality as well as an ability to work effectively across disciplines and teams. He excels at synthesizing perspectives from diverse technical domains and coordinating research workflows with peers and collaborators. In joint academic exchanges, he articulates ideas clearly, listens critically to feedback, and adapts his approaches in a way that enhances group productivity. These strengths enable him to function both as an independent investigator and as an effective team contributor.

Dr. Luo not only showed creativity in conceptual formulation, but he also contributed to discussions on how to align multimodal perception models with control systems, facilitating cross-domain dialogue and shared understanding among collaborators. This capacity to integrate ideas and coordinate progress across research contexts reflects a mature research mindset.

Beyond technical execution, Dr. Luo is proactive in project planning, topic refinement, and milestone tracking, all while maintaining clear lines of communication with research partners. These qualities have repeatedly impressed colleagues and contribute to his reputation as a reliable and effective collaborator in scholarly work.

In summary, Dr. Luo demonstrates exceptional research capabilities, innovative thinking, and strong teamwork and communication skills, making him highly suitable for a competitive postdoctoral appointment. I recommend him without reservation.

Sincerely,

Professor Yu Kang
